

650—22.1(136C,153) Qualification required. A dental assistant shall not participate in dental radiography unless the assistant holds a current registration certificate and an active radiography qualification issued by the board, and a dentist provides general supervision.